

Latin

Year 9

Tuesday 30th May 2023

LO: revising recognising and using the cases of nouns

Tuesday 30th May 2023

REVISION CHECKPOINT

Make sure you know:

- the roles of the genitive, dative and ablative cases
- the endings of puella and dominus in all five cases, singular and plural

NOUN CASES: A SUMMARY

nominative

subject (doing the action)

accusative

direct object (on the receiving end of the action)

or used with specific prepositions

genitive

shows possession (of or 's / s')

dative

indirect object (to or for)

ablative

by, with or from

Exercise 2.7 (Revision)

Identify the number and case of the following:

1. pecunia (two answers)
2. amicos
3. dei (two answers)
4. gladiis (two answers)
5. puellarum
6. nuntio (two answers)
7. villae (three answers)
8. deam
9. hortorum
10. insulis (two answers)

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are

= I attack

multos = many

1. From the passage, give an example of:

(a) a noun in the genitive _____ (1) ()

(b) a 1st person plural verb _____ (1) ()

2. In which case are the following nouns and why?

(a) sagittis (line 3) _____
_____ (2) ()

(b) viris (line 4) _____
_____ (2) ()

3.	State the Latin subject and object of oppugnant (line 1): Subject _____ Object _____	(2)	()
4.	In line 4, we are told that 'the master praises the men' (dominus viros laudat). What changes would you make to dominus and viros if you wanted to say 'the masters praise the man'?	(2)	()
5.	Give an English word derived from equos (line 4) and explain its meaning.	(2)	()
6.	Translate into Latin: We give the money to the master.	(4)	()
7.	Translate into Latin: The daughters of the friends sing.	(4)	()
	TOTAL	(20)	()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack

multos = many

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

I. From the passage, give an example of:

(a) a noun in the genitive _____ (1) ()

(b) a 1st person plural verb _____ (1) ()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

2. In which case are the following nouns and why?

(a) sagittis (line 3) _____
_____ (2) ()

(b) viris (line 4) _____
_____ (2) ()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

3. State the Latin subject and object of oppugnant (line 1):

Subject _____ Object _____

(2) ()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

4. In line 4, we are told that 'the master praises the men' (dominus viros laudat). What changes would you make to dominus and viros if you wanted to say 'the masters praise the man'?

(2) ()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

5. Give an English word derived from equos (line 4) and explain its meaning.

(2) ()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

6. Translate into Latin: We give the money to the master.

(4) ()

Let's go through this together

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

'incolae agros patriae oppugnant,' clamat, 'sed hastis pugnamus!' dominus et agricolae hastas portant et festinant. hastis pugnant. incolae tamen multos viros sagittis necant. tandem viri incolas hastis necant. dominus viros laudat. viris pecuniam et equos dat.

oppugno, -are
= I attack
multos = many

7. Translate into Latin: The daughters of the friends sing.

(4) ()