

Latin

KS3

Wednesday 26th October 2022

Starter Activity

How many of these can you answer?

What are our regular verb endings?

What is a verb?

Pronouns are the 'people' who do a verb, e.g. 'I' and 'You'
- how many more can you think of?

What do we mean by 'regular'?

What is the difference between a singular and a plural verb?

Give 5 examples of Latin verbs

What do these 5 verbs mean?

Today

Wednesday 26th October

LO: to learn the irregular verb 'to be'

To be or not to be?

I am happy

You are a dog

They are girls

Which bit is the verb 'to be'?

How is the group on the left different to that on the right?

I am happy

You are a dog

They are girls

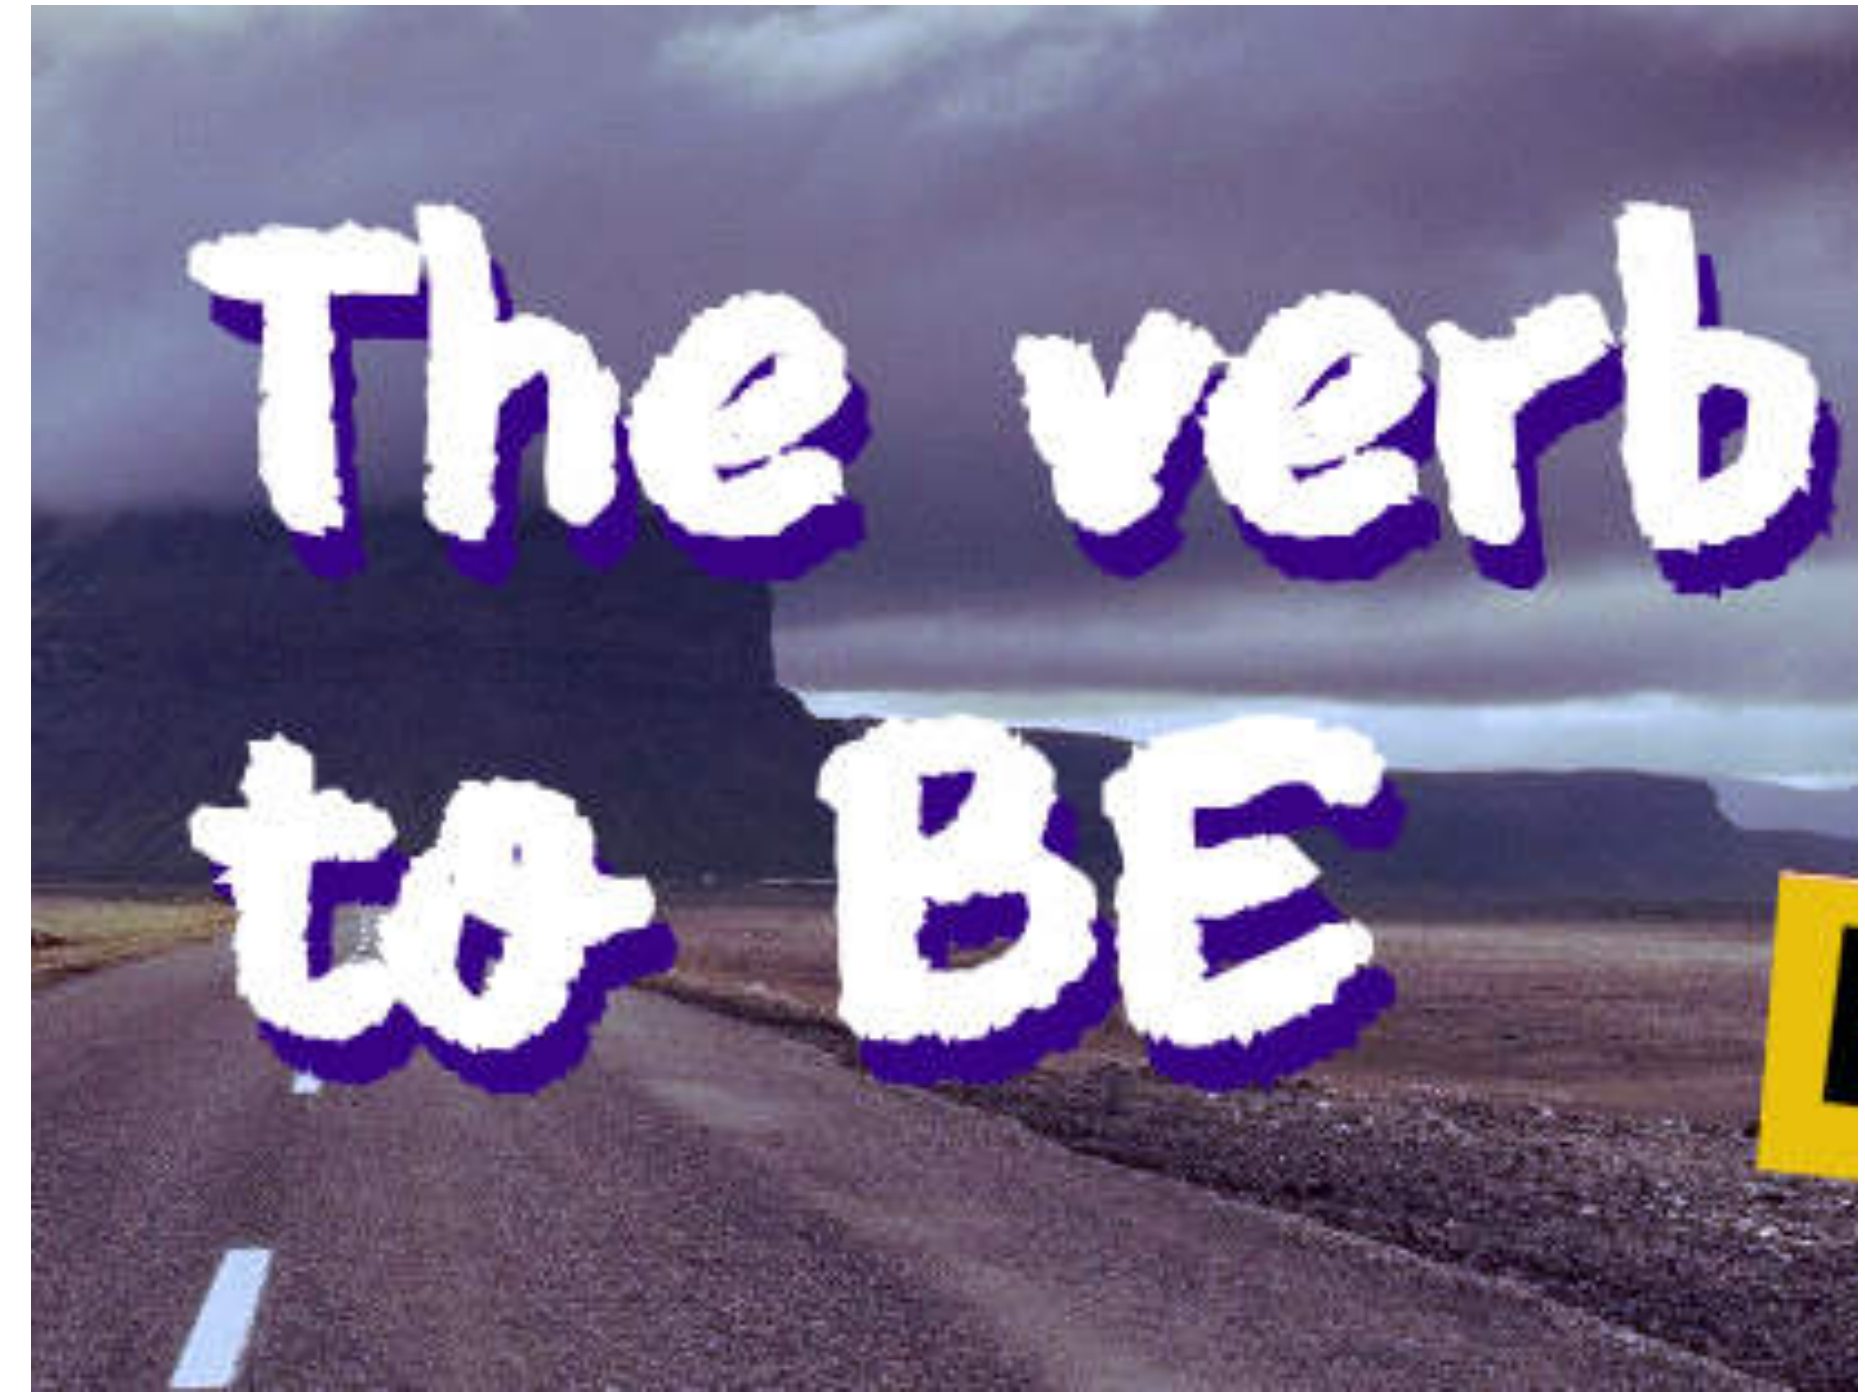

I am running

You are walking

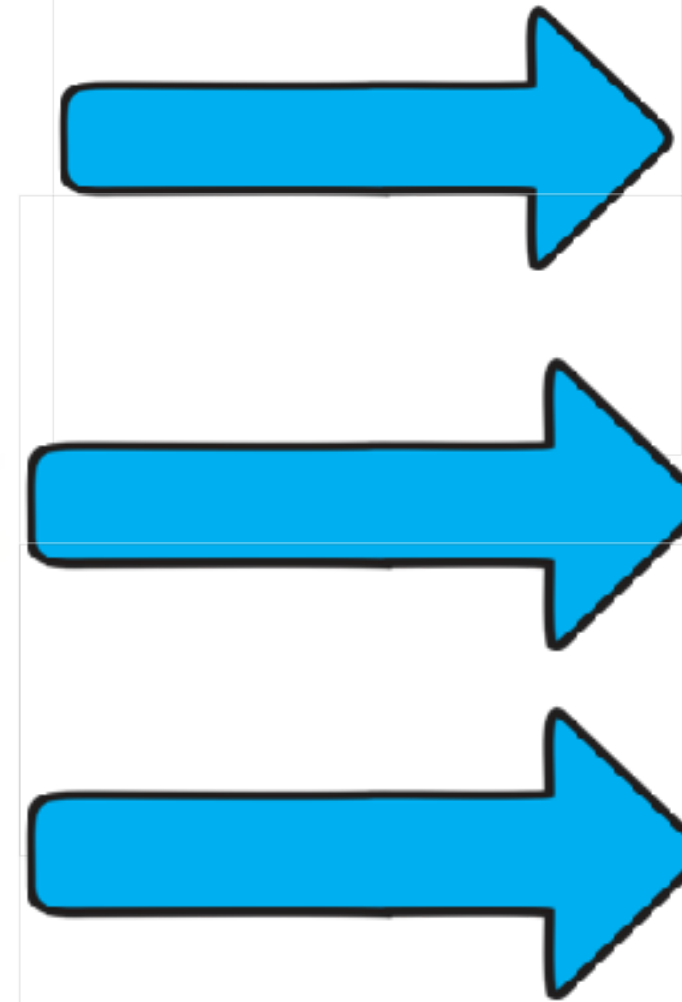

They are calling

I am
you (singular) are he, she or it is
we are you (plural) are they are

To be or not to be?

1st person singular
2nd person singular
3rd person singular

I am
you (singular) are
he, she or it is

sum

=

I am

es

=

you (singular) are

est

=

he, she or it is

sumus

=

we are

estis

=

you (plural) are

sunt

=

they are

GRAMMAR WORK: the verb 'to be'

LEARNING POINT 1b

✓ Learn the verb 'to be', LPI p.7

Exercise 1.4

Translate:

1.	es	_____	(1)	()
2.	sunt	_____	(1)	()
3.	estis	_____	(1)	()
4.	sumus	_____	(1)	()
5.	sum	_____	(1)	()
6.	she is	_____	(1)	()
7.	we are	_____	(1)	()
8.	you (pl.) are	_____	(1)	()
9.	you (s.) are	_____	(1)	()
10.	it is	_____	(1)	()
TOTAL			(10)	()

have a go

Translate into English:

1. dominus sum; servi estis.
2. nuntius et servus amici sunt.
3. sunt dei, et dei Romam amant.
4. ancillae sumus; dominum non amamus.
5. puella ancilla est.

CHALLENGE

Translate into Latin:

1. You (sg) are not a god.
2. The messenger is a slave.
3. The masters are friends.
4. There is a god.
5. The slave and the messenger are friends.

Home Task

learn the verb to be for a written quiz next week

sum	=	I am
es	=	you (singular) are
est	=	he, she or it is sumus	=	we are
estis	=	you (plural) are
sunt	=	they are