

Latin

Year 8

Wednesday 29th March 2023

LO: end of term consolidation practice

Wednesday 29th March 2023

puellas incolae laudant sed puellas agricola non amat. 'vos cantatis sed ego laboro,' clamat. 'agricola sum et puellas non amo, filias non amo, feminas non amo, sed deam amo et laudo.'

Read the following passage and then answer the questions on it:

puellae clamant, 'agricola, puellas non amas. nos igitur agricolas non amamus.'
puellae laborant et cantant. sed agricola non cantat – puellas et feminas non amat.

igitur =
therefore

1. In which case is each of the following nouns and why?

(a) puellae (line 1) _____

(2) ()

(b) agricolas (line 1) _____

(2) ()

2. In which person is each of the following verbs?

(a) amas (line 1) _____

(1) ()

(b) cantant (line 2) _____

(1) ()

3. Change feminas (line 2) into the accusative singular. _____

(1) ()

4. In line 1, the girls say to the farmer, 'we do not like farmers' (agricolas non amamus). How would you change amamus if there were only one girl?
_____ (1) ()
5. clamant (line 1). Translate this word and explain the connection between the Latin word clamant and the English word exclamation.

_____ (3) ()
6. Translate into Latin: The women call the farmer.
_____ (4) ()
7. Translate into Latin: The farmer does not love girls.

_____ (5) ()